World Peace Plan To Win $100,000 On Nation Vote

Award in Edward Bok's Contest Made But Referendum Will Be Taken Before Name of Winner Announced

NEW YORK, Dec. 25.—The prize winning plan in Edward Bok's $100,000 American peace award contest was presented to Mr. Bok yesterday by Elihu Root, chairman of the jury of award. Mr. Bok came from Philadelphia to read the plan and transmit it to the policy committee of the contest.

The author of the plan is an officer, $50,000 at once, but his name will not be disclosed until his peace proposal can be submitted to a referendum of the people of the United States, which will be undertaken through the press, churches and the nation beginning on January 7th, the date of the winning plan will be made public.

If the plan wins public approval through the referendum, the author will receive another $50,000 in prize money and his name will be made known.

MUSSOLINI IS URGING PEOPLE TO COME HERE

Conditions Are Far from Good in Italy and Farmers Evict Canada

(Special to The Bulletin)
ST. JOHN, N. B., Dec. 25.—That Premier Mussolini of Italy is generally interested in Canada was shown in a message through the press yesterday by Captain R. W. Fraser, who arrived on the Canadian Pacific R. S. Minotaur.

Capt. Fraser has come to Canada to ascertain just what conditions are at for Italian emigration and with this object in view, will take up the matter with Col. Dennis of the immigration department Ottawa and other officials. He is also in France where he was looking after the interests of Italian immigrants. He explained that there are a lot of Italians in Italy who are anxious to come to this country and who have been accustomed to that line of work all their lives.

In addition, he said that Premier Mussolini is interested in the welfare of the people and considers that there are golden opportunities for some of them in this country. At the present time conditions are not so good in Italy as they were a few years ago, and that they would be able to better themselves by coming to Canada. Captain Fraser pointed out that the fact of men desiring to come here is one of the best and are all situated in farming. He considered that they would make valuable citizens and would do much toward developing the vast tracts of land in the west.

He also said that his negotiations have been successful in bringing to have a number of his people brought here during the next few months, so that they could familiarize themselves with conditions and be ready to make a start in the spring.

LONE WOMAN KILLED
Found with Head Bitten in and Pocket Book in Hand

ST. JOHN, N. B., Dec. 25.—Mrs. Clara Whitehead, 50, was found murdered in her home on Redford road here tonight. Her head was beaten and she was lying on a bed of blood, she clutched an empty pocket book in her hand.

Not far from the body was a woman's blood-stained and soiled dress, and a woman's hair. The police have no clue as to the perpetrator.

NOT FOR THE DRY
SAN FRANCISCO, Calif., Dec. 25.—It was not a drier campaign, but a drier one, that was being waged here tonight for the election of the state legislature. The agents distributed leaflets and urged the voters to elect a legislature that would support the prohibition law.

FIGURES IN CHURCH WAR

BISHOP WM. T. MANNING

BISHOP LAWRENCE

Dr. Leighton Parks of New York City started his Bartholomew Episcopal church congregation by floating the figure of the virgin birth of Christ, saying he would welcome a trial for heresy. Bishop Lawrence of Massachusetts is a leader in the "liberal" forces of the Episcopal Church, while Bishop Manning stands at the head of the conservatives.

The author of the plan is an officer, $50,000 at once, but his name will not be disclosed until his peace proposal can be submitted to a referendum of the people of the United States, which will be undertaken through the press, churches and the nation beginning on January 7th, the date of the winning plan will be made public.

Eighty Mile Gale Takes Heavy Toll Lives, Ships, Property Christmas Day

Velocity Records Broken at Seattle and Tacoma—Four Members of Canadian Yacht Boat Lost When Vessel Was Swept on Rocks Near Victoria—Boat Pounded to Pieces and Sinks at Seattle Dock

Seattle, Wash., Dec. 25.—Six lives were taken and damage roughly estimated tonight at $300,000 loss by a tempest that accompanied Christmas Day to the north Pacific ocean and the parts of Washington and British Columbia adjacent to Puget Sound and Gray's Harbor.

A tug and steamer figured in the marine loss while two ocean-going craft were in peril, from which one escaped and from which the other seemed tonight to be gaining its way. Many small boats were wrecked.

Wind Was Tornado
The hour on Gray's Harbor, 45 miles at Port Angeles, on the north side of the Strait of Juan de Fuca, was a fearful one. The wind was a full force, four members of the crew of the Canadian tug which was swept upon the rocks at End Bay, near Victoria, B. C., and Michael Stronach, 12, was drowned.

The other vessel wrecked was the steamer Dawn, which was pounded to pieces and sunk at Seattle dock. The vessel was a tug and steamer, and was carrying a cargo of lumber.

Mr. and Mrs. Coburn

is intensely patriotic. Indeed he is a hundred and one per cent American in his tastes and predilections. The British sphere of things enters all the way from the telephone to their business methods call forth his bitterest contempt. "So This is London" is the most complete and complete picture of the American gentleman's procedure in summing up his opinion of the world's most popular play. To his utter amazement and complete disgust he is informed that the boy is firm.

The girl's father is just as ardent an Englishman as the other is Yankee. The old Englishman is one of the few who have not been converted by the Englishman. He is a man of the old school. He is a man of the old school. He is a man of the old school.

of course the two families meet. The French for awhile. They then each find the other is not so much of the old school as they are. They are all only new mortals and decide that friendship is to be preferred to enmity and all ends happily.

The main feature of the play is the American boy, English, French and American in the light that the American boy is a man of the old school. He is a man of the old school. He is a man of the old school.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Coburn scored triumph of an equal magnitude and they made many friends out front. The play will be shown in the city.
